15 UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
16 Plaintiff,
17 v.
18 ISIDRO ZURIEL CRUZ-VIZCARRA,
19 Defendant.

20 CASE NO. 1:22-CR-00179-JLT-SKO
21 STIPULATION REGARDING EXCLUDABLE
22 TIME PERIODS UNDER SPEEDY TRIAL ACT;
23 ORDER
24 DATE: May 3, 2023
25 TIME: 1:00 p.m.
26 COURT: Hon. Sheila K. Oberto

27 This case is set for a status conference on May 3, 2023. This Court has issued a series of General
28 Orders to address public health concerns related to COVID-19, to suspend jury trials in the Eastern District of California, including recently, General Order 628, and many related previous and subsequent general orders pertaining to the pandemic and procedures put in place to limit community spread.

Although the General Orders address the district-wide health concern, the Supreme Court has emphasized that the Speedy Trial Act's end-of-justice provision "counteract[s] substantive openendedness with procedural strictness," "demand[ing] on-the-record findings" in a particular case.
Zedner v. United States, 547 U.S. 489, 509 (2006). "[W]ithout on-the-record findings, there can be no exclusion under" § 3161(h)(7)(A). Id. at 507. Moreover, any such failure cannot be harmless. Id. at 509; see also United States v. Ramirez-Cortez, 213 F.3d 1149, 1153 (9th Cir. 2000) (explaining that a judge ordering an ends-of-justice continuance must set forth explicit findings on the record "either orally or in writing").

Based on the plain text of the Speedy Trial Act—which Zedner emphasizes as both mandatory and inexcusable—General Orders 611, 612, and 617 require specific supplementation. Ends-of-justice continuances are excludable only if “the judge granted such continuance on the basis of his findings that the ends of justice served by taking such action outweigh the best interest of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial.” 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A). Moreover, no such period is excludable unless “the court sets forth, in the record of the case, either orally or in writing, its reason or finding that the ends of justice served by the granting of such continuance outweigh the best interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial.” Id.

The General Orders exclude delay in the “ends of justice.” 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7) (Local Code T4). Although the Speedy Trial Act does not directly address continuances stemming from pandemics, natural disasters, or other emergencies, this Court has discretion to order a continuance in such circumstances. For example, the Ninth Circuit affirmed a two-week ends-of-justice continuance following Mt. St. Helens’ eruption. Furlow v. United States, 644 F.2d 764 (9th Cir. 1981). The court recognized that the eruption made it impossible for the trial to proceed. Id. at 767-68; see also United States v. Correa, 182 F. Supp. 326, 329 (S.D.N.Y. 2001) (citing Furlow to exclude time following the September 11, 2001 terrorist attacks and the resultant public emergency). The coronavirus is posing a similar, albeit more enduring, barrier to the prompt proceedings mandated by the statutory rules.

In light of the societal context created by the foregoing, this Court should consider the following case-specific facts in finding excludable delay appropriate in this particular case under the ends-of-justice exception, § 3161(h)(7) (Local Code T4).¹ If continued, this Court should designate a new date for the status conference. United States v. Lewis, 611 F.3d 1172, 1176 (9th Cir. 2010) (noting any pretrial continuance must be “specifically limited in time”).

STIPULATION

Plaintiff United States of America, by and through its counsel of record, and defendant, by and through defendant's counsel of record, hereby stipulate as follows:

26 1. By previous order, this matter was set for status on May 3, 2023.

¹ The parties note that General Order 612 acknowledges that a district judge may make “additional findings to support the exclusion” at the judge’s discretion. General Order 612, ¶ 5 (E.D. Cal. March 18, 2020).

1 2. By this stipulation, defendants now move to continue the status conference until July 5, 2 2023, at 1:00 P.M. and to exclude time between May 3, 2023, and July 5, 2023, inclusive, under Local 3 Code T4.

4 3. The parties agree and stipulate, and request that the Court find the following:

5 a) The discovery associated with this case is voluminous and includes tens of 6 thousands of pages, including investigative reports, photographs and videos, as well as hundreds
7 of hours of recorded telephone conversations pursuant to wiretap orders, many cellular phone
8 extractions, and large amounts of cellular telephone precise location data and vehicle tracker
9 data. All this discovery has been either produced directly to counsel and/or made available for 10 inspection and copying.

11 b) The government has sent a plea offer to the defense to resolve the case.

12 c) Counsel for defendant desires additional time to consult with his client, conduct
13 investigation, review the voluminous discovery, review the plea offer with his client, and prepare 14 for a possible trial.

15 d) Counsel for defendant believes that failure to grant the above-requested
16 continuance would deny him/her the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking 17 into account the exercise of due diligence.

18 e) The government does not object to the continuance.

19 f) Based on the above-stated findings, the ends of justice served by continuing the 20 case as requested outweigh the interest of the public and the defendant in a trial within the 21 original date prescribed by the Speedy Trial Act.

22 g) For the purpose of computing time under the Speedy Trial Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3161,
23 et seq., within which trial must commence, the time period of May 3, 2023 to July 5, 2023,
24 inclusive, is deemed excludable pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), B(i) and B(ii) [Local 25 Code T4] because the case is so unusual or so complex, due to the number of defendants, the 26 nature of the prosecution, or the existence of novel questions of fact or law, that it is 27 unreasonable to expect adequate preparation for pretrial proceedings or for the trial itself within 28 the time limits established by this section. This stipulation also results from a continuance

1 granted by the Court at defendant's request on the basis of the Court's finding that the ends of 2 justice served by taking such action outweigh the best interest of the public and the defendant in 3 a speedy trial.

4. Nothing in this stipulation and order shall preclude a finding that other provisions of the 5 Speedy Trial Act dictate that additional time periods are excludable from the period within which a trial
6 must commence.

7 IT IS SO STIPULATED.
